I had the privilege of working with PG Builders, Inc. when I was a Property Manager for my previous employer, an association management company. During my time there I came to rely on PG Builders, specifically Mr. Locher, as my primary General Contractor of choice.

I found Mr. Locher to be professional, reliable, extremely patient, responsive, and essentially an extension of our company. Whenever a project was being handled by PG Builders, I knew I could count on it being completed with quality workmanship and within the projected time schedule. I also can't say enough about Mr. Locher's willingness to educate the consumer (me), even before knowing if his company even had the job. Additionally, I found Mr. Locher to be trustworthy and savvy enough to deal with our homeowners in what could sometimes be rather tenuous circumstances.

I would highly recommend PG Builders, Inc., and in fact I still do whenever the opportunity presents itself.
